Summary of Feedback and Suggestions from Parents During the 2018-19 Parent-Teacher Meeting

Parents expressed their satisfaction with the overall organization of the Parent-Teacher Meeting at Anand Education College, Anand, managed by Shri Ramkrishna Seva Mandal. They appreciated the warm welcome extended to them with flowers and books, which they found to be a thoughtful gesture.

Parents recognized that Anand Education College was providing quality education for their daughters, not only in academics but also in personal and life development. They appreciated the college's focus on holistic education, which combined both knowledge and character building.

They felt proud to have their daughters enrolled at the college, as they observed the careful development and moral upbringing of the students. The college's approach to nurturing young minds resonated with them, and they felt confident about their daughters' future.

The parents were pleased to interact with the faculty and principal, gaining insight into the college's environment. This interaction reinforced their trust and confidence in the institution. They were also encouraged by the involvement in the college's activities and the positive reinforcement their daughters received.

They expressed hope that such inspirational support would continue in the future and emphasized their gratitude for the college's efforts.
