Year 2020-21

“During the academic year 2020–21, block teaching activities were conducted at Anand, Bhroda, Nadiad, and Gopalpura. Feedback on the performance of the trainee teachers was jointly collected by the principals and teaching staff. An analysis of the responses received from a total of 24 teachers is presented below.”

1. "According to 97% of the teachers, the trainee teachers carry out their teaching duties in a disciplined and well-prepared manner. Furthermore, they engage in subject matter discussions with adequate preparation and provide appropriate encouragement to students during classroom interactions."
2. “According to 100% of the teachers, the trainee teachers arrive with a pre-planned syllabus and timetable, approach each teaching activity with structured preparation, and begin lessons in an appropriate and organized manner. They maintain a democratic classroom environment, make effective use of teaching aids, and actively strive to incorporate evaluation at the end of their instructional sessions.”
3. "According to 98% of the teachers, the trainee teachers not only organize and execute diverse co-curricular activities to engage students during lessons, but also maintain well-structured timetables and productively utilize proxy periods for educational purposes."
4. "According to 95% of the teachers, the prayer sessions conducted by the trainee teachers are beneficial to the students."
