Summary of Feedback and Suggestions from Parents During the 2021-22 Parent-Teacher Meeting

Parents expressed that Anand Education College, Anand, managed by Shri Ramkrishna Seva Mandal, is not just an institution but an excellent platform for shaping careers.

They appreciated the Parent Interaction Program and found its organization highly effective. Parents acknowledged the dedication and excellence of the Principal and faculty members, feeling assured that their daughters were receiving high-quality education and guidance.

They strongly believed that after completing their B.Ed., their daughters would emerge as confident individuals, responsible citizens, and successful professionals. They observed significant positive changes in their daughters and appreciated that, along with academics, the college was also instilling strong moral values.

Despite being a small institution, parents found the college well-structured, student-friendly, and conducive to learning. They were particularly impressed by the library's book exhibition, which they found valuable.

Additionally, they felt privileged to visit the college, interact with the management, principal, and faculty, and gain insights into the various activities and initiatives undertaken by the institution.
