Summary of Feedback and Suggestions from Parents During the 2022-23 Parent-Teacher Meeting

During the Parent-Teacher Meeting held at Anand Education College, Anand, managed by Shri Ramkrishna Seva Mandal, parents first expressed their heartfelt gratitude to Principal Shri Dhirajbhai. They felt honored and proud to participate in the Parent Interaction Program.

Parents expressed immense happiness and pride in enrolling their daughters in the college. They observed that the faculty members were highly dedicated and that their daughters had shown significant positive changes after joining the institution. Their children were more focused on their studies and actively participated in various activities, contributing to their overall development.

They strongly believed that the college's core values—"Vidya, Vinay, and Seva" (Knowledge, Humility, and Service)—were being effectively upheld. They expressed satisfaction with the college's efforts and appreciated the motivational speech delivered by the chief guest.

Many parents suggested that Parent-Teacher Meetings should be held more frequently. They also recommended that such meetings be scheduled on Sundays or holidays for better participation.

Finally, they expressed their hope and blessings that their daughters would receive quality education and values, enabling them to become excellent educators and contribute to the betterment of society.
